

15th March 2020.

-- NOTICE --

UPG College will post daily updates on the official website and all announcements regarding exams should be awaited by students and parents. No personal calls to any staff members of UPG College will be allowed. In the meanwhile all students should continue to use their time to prepare for exams.

Students are hereby informed that all ATKT exams scheduled up to 17th March will be held as per time table as there are only few students appearing for the same. Students are requested to take required precautionary measures by wearing masks and using sanitizers.
